

Gender Cards

These Gender Cards are for distributing to participants as part of the “Understanding gender stereotypes” activity. Each group needs to receive one full set of cards.

Cut along the lines of the table to create the cards. You can add your own points on the blank cards.

They like having sex	They're loving	They are sensitive
They keep their hair short	They like gossiping	They wear skirts

They wear pants	They like shopping	They cry easily
They shave their legs	They use lipstick	They are emotional
They mow the lawn	They can cook	They complain a lot

They like fishing	They fly planes	They play with dolls
They talk to their friends about how they feel	They don't get scared	They make good leaders
They're good with kids	They're obsessed with selfies	They play sport

They are strong	They're good decision makers	They don't cry
They're brave	They do the dishes	They like cars